

This image is from the collection of

#ColorOurCollections

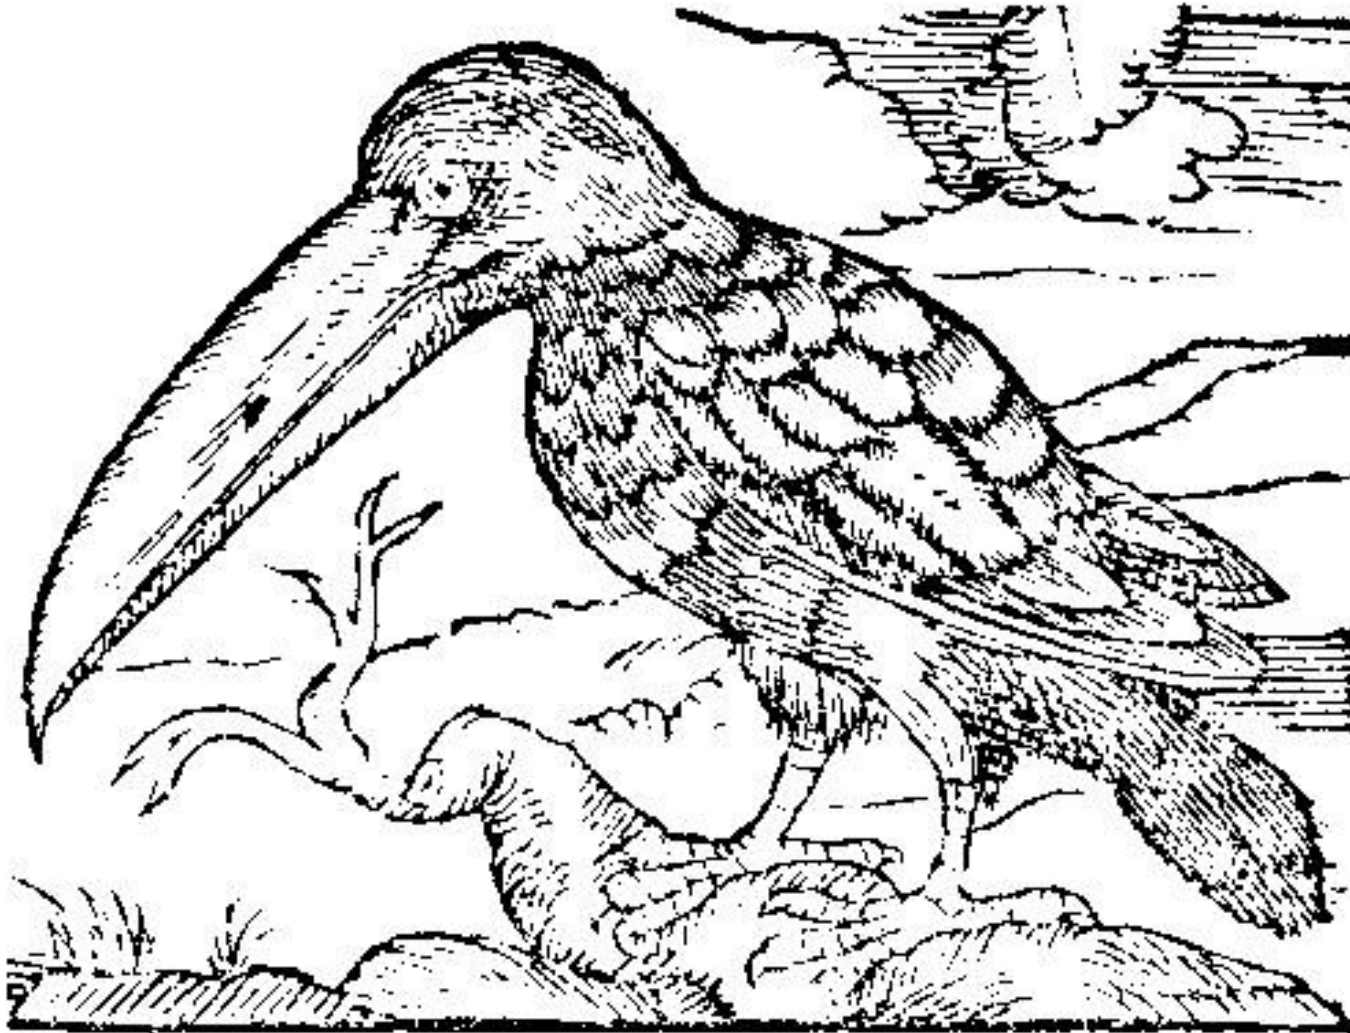

Architectural form attributed to Palenque, a Classic Maya site most vital in the 7th century A.D.: Lithograph by Antonio del Rio, 1822. Original in the John Carter Brown Library.

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org

Woodcut map of France including part of Spain, Germany, and England: Galliae tabula, published by Henricum Petri, 1561. Original in the John Carter Brown Library.

Woodcut of a toucan by André Thevet, a Franciscan monk who traveled to Brazil: created by Thevet and published in Antwerp by Christophle Plantin, 1558. Original in the John Carter Brown Library.

Woodcut of the aloe plant: Aloës by Christophe Vielheuer, 1676. Original in the John Carter Brown Library.

La M. Iosepha Petra Juana Nepomucena de Sr. S. Miguel, Religiosa profesha de velo negro en el Convento de Dominicas de N. S.ª de la Salud de Patzquaro; murió el a. 1757. á los 16. de su edad de 10 años de Religión.

Engraved portrait of Josepha Petra Juana Nepomucena de San Miguel: La M. Iosepha Petra Juana Nepomucena de en el Convento de Dominicas de N. Sa. de la Salud de Patzquaro ... by José Antonio Eugenio Ponce de León, 1758. Original in the John Carter Brown Library.