#ColorOurCollections

Colonial Fashion Anatomy of a Gown

www.moravianhistoricalsociety.org

Created by the Moravian Historical Society.

MORAVIAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Colonial Fashion Anatomy of a Suit

Shirt: The innermost piece of clothing worn by a man.

Hat: Worn on the head to protect a man's face from the elements.

Breeches: Like today's pants, breeches are worn to cover the lower portion of the body. Breeches are usually tight fitting and ends just below the knee.  Neck Tie: Worn around a man's neck and tied in a loose knot.

Waist Coat: Known today as a vest, waistcoats were an essential part of a man's suit.

Coat: Worn by a man as part of his suit. A coat would show the social status of a man.

Stockings: Made from wool, stockings would be worn for modesty and warmth.

Shoes: Usually made from leather, shoes were worn to protect the feet.

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org

#ColorOurCollections

Ink drawing of the First House of Nazareth and the Whitefield House, c. 1850. Collection of the Moravian Historical Society.

#ColorOurCollections

Print of Fulnek in Moravia, 1869. Collection of the Moravian Historical Society.