

The National Museum – Palace of the Grand Dukes of Lithuania was founded in 2009. The institution collects, preserves, conserves, restores, conducts research, interprets, and displays the history and cultural heritage of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania and its rulers, especially the rich and unique collections of archaeological artifacts and European decorative and fine arts in the restored historical residence of the Vilnius Lower Castle.

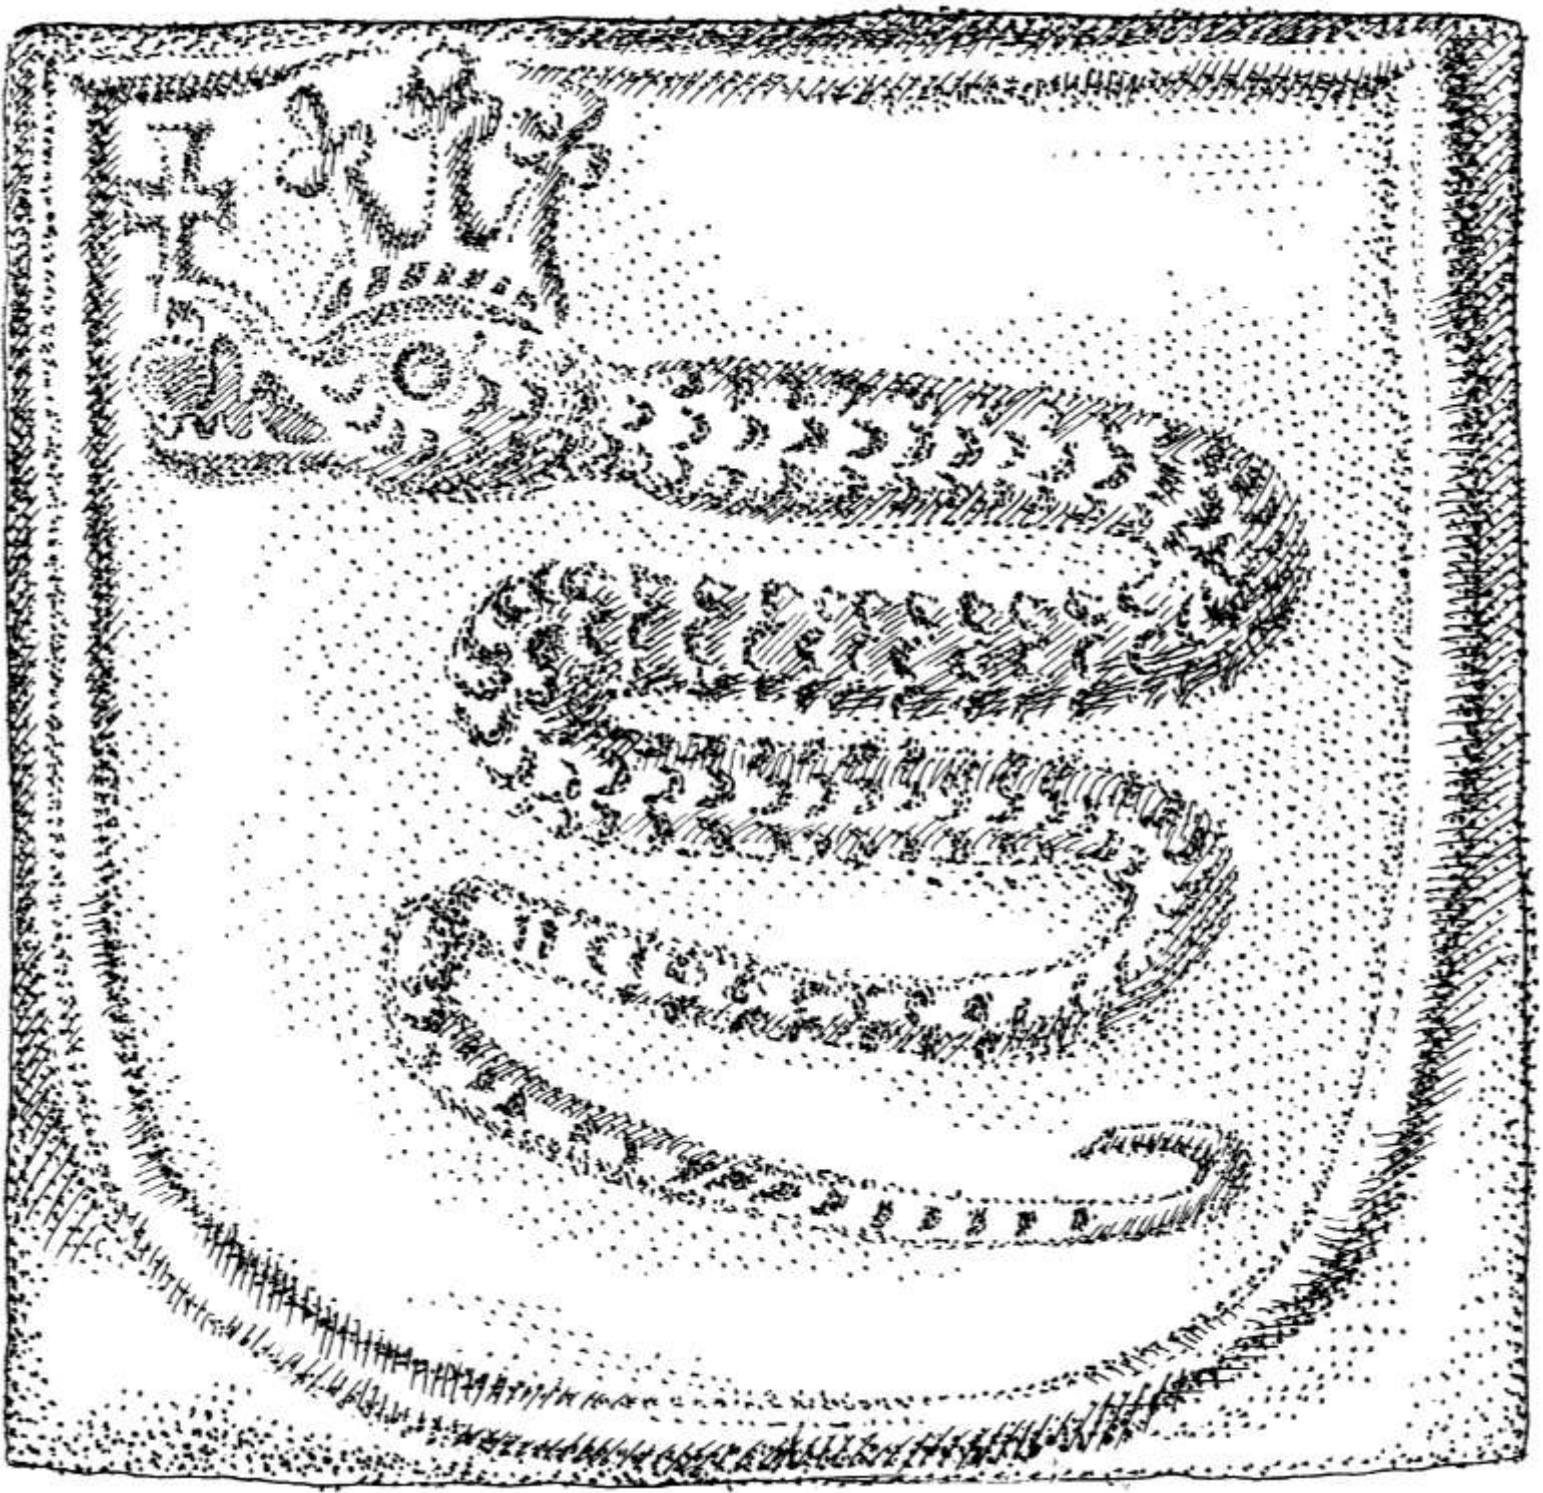

Square stove tile depicting a mythical animal, late 15th c. Glazed earthenware.

Square stove tile depicting a mythical animal, late 15th c. Glazed earthenware.

Square stove tile depicting two animals, late 15th c. Glazed earthenware.

Square stove tile with the Wąz coat of arms, late 15th c. Glazed earthenware.

Armorial stove tile, late 15th c. Glazed earthenware.