

YORK COUNTY
HISTORY
— CENTER —

#ColorOurCollections

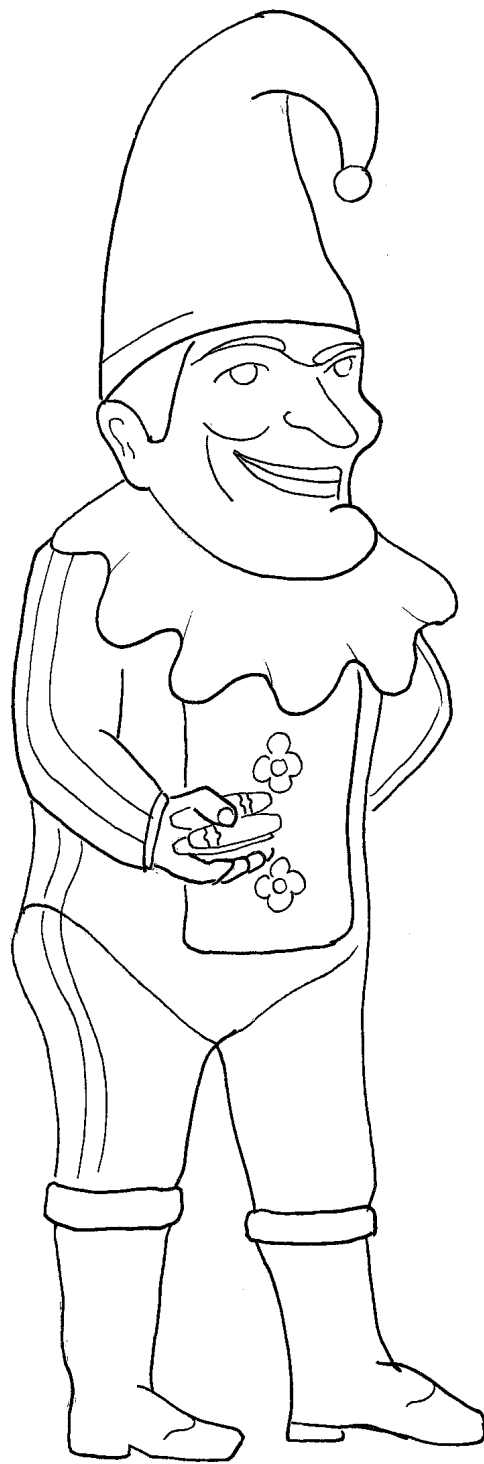

1916 Pullman DeLuxe Coupe
Advertised as “tailored for Her Majesty the American woman,” this car was designed to resemble Cinderella’s carriage
by York, Pennsylvania’s Pullman Motor Company.

Conestoga Wagon

Used to carry freight in the 1700s and 1800s, Conestoga wagons were a frequent sight in York, Pennsylvania.

Punch Cigar Store Statue

A fixture in York, Pennsylvania's Continental Square by the 1870's, Punch was featured at various establishments through the decades. This figure was based on the Punch and Judy puppet shows.