Inoperable: Pen and ink drawing, 1858, by Lucius Manlius Sargent, M.D., Artist to the Massachusetts General Hospital. Many of Dr. Sargent's original sketches, caricatures and anatomical drawings are in the Boston Medical Library in The Francis A. Countway Library of Medicine.

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org
No. VI.—THE PATIENT.

Thou vicim of relentless fate,
Exhausting life's expiring taper,
We here behold thy weakly state
Depicted in our weekly Paper.
What train of maladies has led
To this your very sad condition—
Has laid you prostrate on your bed,
A prey to surgeon and physician!

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org
Gillray, J. (1799). Punch cures the gout, the colic, and ‘Tisick.” Retrieved from the Waring Historical Library Medical Caricatures Collection: http://digital.library.musc.edu/cdm/ref/collection/whc/id/77

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org