New York State Library

COLOR OUR COLLECTIONS

2020

New York State Library
www.nysl.nysed.gov
Iris design, possibly for painting china, from The Art Interchange Magazine (vol. IV, no.8, 1880)
Chip-carving design from The Art Interchange Magazine (1902)
Bookplate of Theodule, Comte De Grammont, designed by R.A. Bell in 1896.
Bookplate of Karl Emich graf zu Leiningen-Westerburg, acquired for the NYS Library bookplate collection in 1918.
Bookplate of the Whitechapel Free Public Library and Museum, designed by Walter Crane (1845-1915).
Bookplate of Frank Graef Darlington, acquired for the NYS Library bookplate collection in 1921.
Illustration by Dugald Steward Walker from “The Story of Bird of Gold” in The Boy Apprenticed by an Enchanter (1920) by Padraic Colum.
Finis printers ornament, used to mark the end of a section or book, from Scribner's Magazine (1918)