

The name Saint Francis de Sales Parish United by the Most Blessed Sacrament represents two great old Philadelphia Catholic parishes (St. Francis de Sales Parish, founded in 1890; Most Blessed Sacrament Parish, founded in 1901), combined in 2007 under the landmark 1911 Guastavino dome of St. Francis de Sales church. Our parish webpage is at Desalesphilly.com Find our coloring pages and more in the Parish History archives at <https://SFDShistory.wordpress.com>

This 2022 coloring book is based on advertisements from the St. Francis de Sales Parish Monthly Bulletins of the 1940s and 1950s, showing some of the long-lost local businesses that once served our neighborhood!

Saint Francis de Sales Church, Philadelphia, PA, is a local landmark constructed in Byzantine-revival style with Guastavino tiled domes, vaults, and arches. Designed by architect Henry Dagit (who was a member of the parish), its construction began in 1907 and finished in 1911. This illustration was contributed to the parish in 1926 by parishioner Charles A. Stinson, president of Gatchel and Manning, Inc., photoengravers, with offices at 6th and Chestnut.
