The University of South Florida Libraries' Florida Environment and Natural History (FLENH) is the newest collecting initiative that brings accessible, data-driven, research materials to students and scientists at USF, and around the world. The collection includes rare botanical books, like those featured here, that illustrate patterns of scientific exchange, travel, and history.

Cover Art: Plumier, Charles. *Plantarum americanarum fasciculus primus[-decimus] continens plantas, quas olim Carolus Plumierius, botanicorum princeps detexit, eruitque, atque in insulis Antillis ipse depinxit.
