Villa Bernasconi, Cernobbio (Como) - Italy

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org

Drawing by Antiorario Video
Davide Bernasconi engineer, founder of Bernasconi Textiles plants

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org

Drawing by Antiorario Video
1872 – Davide Bernasconi arrives in Cernobbio
Davide Bernasconi becomes The Broggi&Coduri Factory’s director

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org
40/60 Mechanical frames technological innovation at that time

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org

Drawing by Antiorario Video
1874 – New building was built

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org

Drawing by Antiorario Video
1878 – The workers’ village was built in Crespi d'Adda, Capriate San Gervasio (Bergamo) - Italy

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org
1880 – On the same model the village of Cernobbio comes to life

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org

Drawing by Antiorario Video
1881 – Bernasconi Textiles plant wins the gold medal at the Milan Exhibition

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org
1899 - Bernasconi Textiles plant takes part to Volta's Exhibition in Como

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org
1900 - Bernasconi Textiles takes part to Paris Exhibition

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org

Drawing by Antiorario Video
1900 - Bernasconi Textiles receive the silver medal at the Paris Exhibition

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org
1906 – The Company takes part to the Milan Exhibition

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org
1937 – Bernasconi Textiles reached 10 production units (3400 employees)

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org
1939 - The production of fabrics for high fashion was launched
The story continues…

For more coloring pages, visit ColorOurCollections.org