Juan felt invisible in his world, he thought nothing interesting ever happened in his life. One day, while walking with his cell phone in his hand, he stopped to admire the flowers growing around a tree, the sun was shining brightly. Suddenly, an idea came to him, he started writing stories on his phone, telling stories about how to understand the world, he encouraged them to "choose your adventure" and through his stories he realized that the world was full of possibilities and that it is never too late to live an adventure (story generated by artificial intelligence from the titles of the novels in the cep santa cruz de tenerife library).
Sometimes I am a Jaguar, wild and free, like my orange-lime plant growing in my garden. But there are nights, like this Friday night, when I feel like a rare and valuable pearl, hidden in a shell. I imagine myself as Romeo, looking for my Juliet, my Marianela. I look for her on every corner, in every street, in every scent of bitter chocolate and in every black cat that crosses my path. And when I find her, I love her with all my heart. (Story generated by artificial intelligence from the titles of the novels in the CEP Santa Cruz de Tenerife library).
The trip to the Sahara took him on an unexpected adventure, when a submarine plunged him into the depths of the desert. The shadow of the glass covered his face as he slid down the yards of sandy floor. Twilight was approaching and the passage was full of scum, but he was determined to find the way out. With each step, he discovered new dangers and obstacles, but also new opportunities and discoveries. Finally, he managed to escape from the submarine and returned to the surface with a new perspective on the world and himself. (story generated by artificial intelligence from the titles of the novels in the CEP Santa Cruz de Tenerife library).
In the shadows of the cavern, the mystery of the necklace was hidden. The shipwreck of the maps had left the adventurers lost and desperate. But then, one of them found the compass rose, which led them to the heart of the red mountain. There, the necklace and its secret were revealed (story generated by artificial intelligence from the titles of the novels in the CEP Santa Cruz de Tenerife library).

BIBLIOTECA DEL CEP SANTA CRUZ DE TENERIFE
https://www3.gobiernodecanarias.org/medusa/proyecto/38706050-0009/
Ana crossed the bridges every day, in hard times. A boy in striped pajamas would accompany her on her way, five barley loaves in his hand. As long as they were young, they would continue to struggle together. It was a story of hope and perseverance (story generated by artificial intelligence from the titles of the novels in the CEP Santa Cruz de Tenerife library).
CAMILA and ZULO were rebels fighting for love, the principle that guided them. One day, they received a call to the wild that led them to a haunted crypt in the LAPA. There they discovered the mystery of "The Crystal Tunnel," a path that led them to a profound understanding of love and its transformative power (story generated by artificial intelligence from the titles of the novels in the CEP Santa Cruz de Tenerife library).
The beetles flew at dusk as the green coat of the forest darkened. The club of barefoot wizards gathered in the heart of the forest, under the white mountains. There, they surrounded the old clock, which marked the beginning of their magical ceremonies (story generated by artificial intelligence from the titles of the novels in the CEP Santa Cruz de Tenerife library).
The wizard of Oz, with his mighty staff, traveled through wonderland, seeking his true freedom. His pulses pounded as he faced the three bandits who threatened his path. But the wizard was not afraid, he knew that freedom has no fear. With all five senses alert, he managed to defeat his enemies and continue his quest (story generated by artificial intelligence from the titles of the novels in the CEP Santa Cruz de Tenerife library).