

King's College Archive Centre. REF/4/11. A Sketch by Roger Fry titled "A Siesta - Zamora" produced to illustrate his published work "A Sampler of Castile" published in 1923 by Hogarth Press

King's College Archive Centre, College Papers, SAC/62: Grant of Sampford Courtenay Manor, Devon, made by Elizabeth I to King's College, 1601 (extract).

King's College Library. Elias Ashmole, Theatrum Chemicum Britannicum, 1738. Illustration of an alchemical dragon.

King's College Library. Ranulf Higden, Polycronicon. St George slaying the dragon.

King's College Library. Roger Fry, (1921) Twelve original woodcuts. London: Hogarth Press. A woodcut of a seated woman by Roger Fry.