

COLORING

the SCHS Collections

Rendering of the Fireproof Building by Robert Mills, 1820s

Wildlife artwork by Langdon Cheves III, circa 1860s

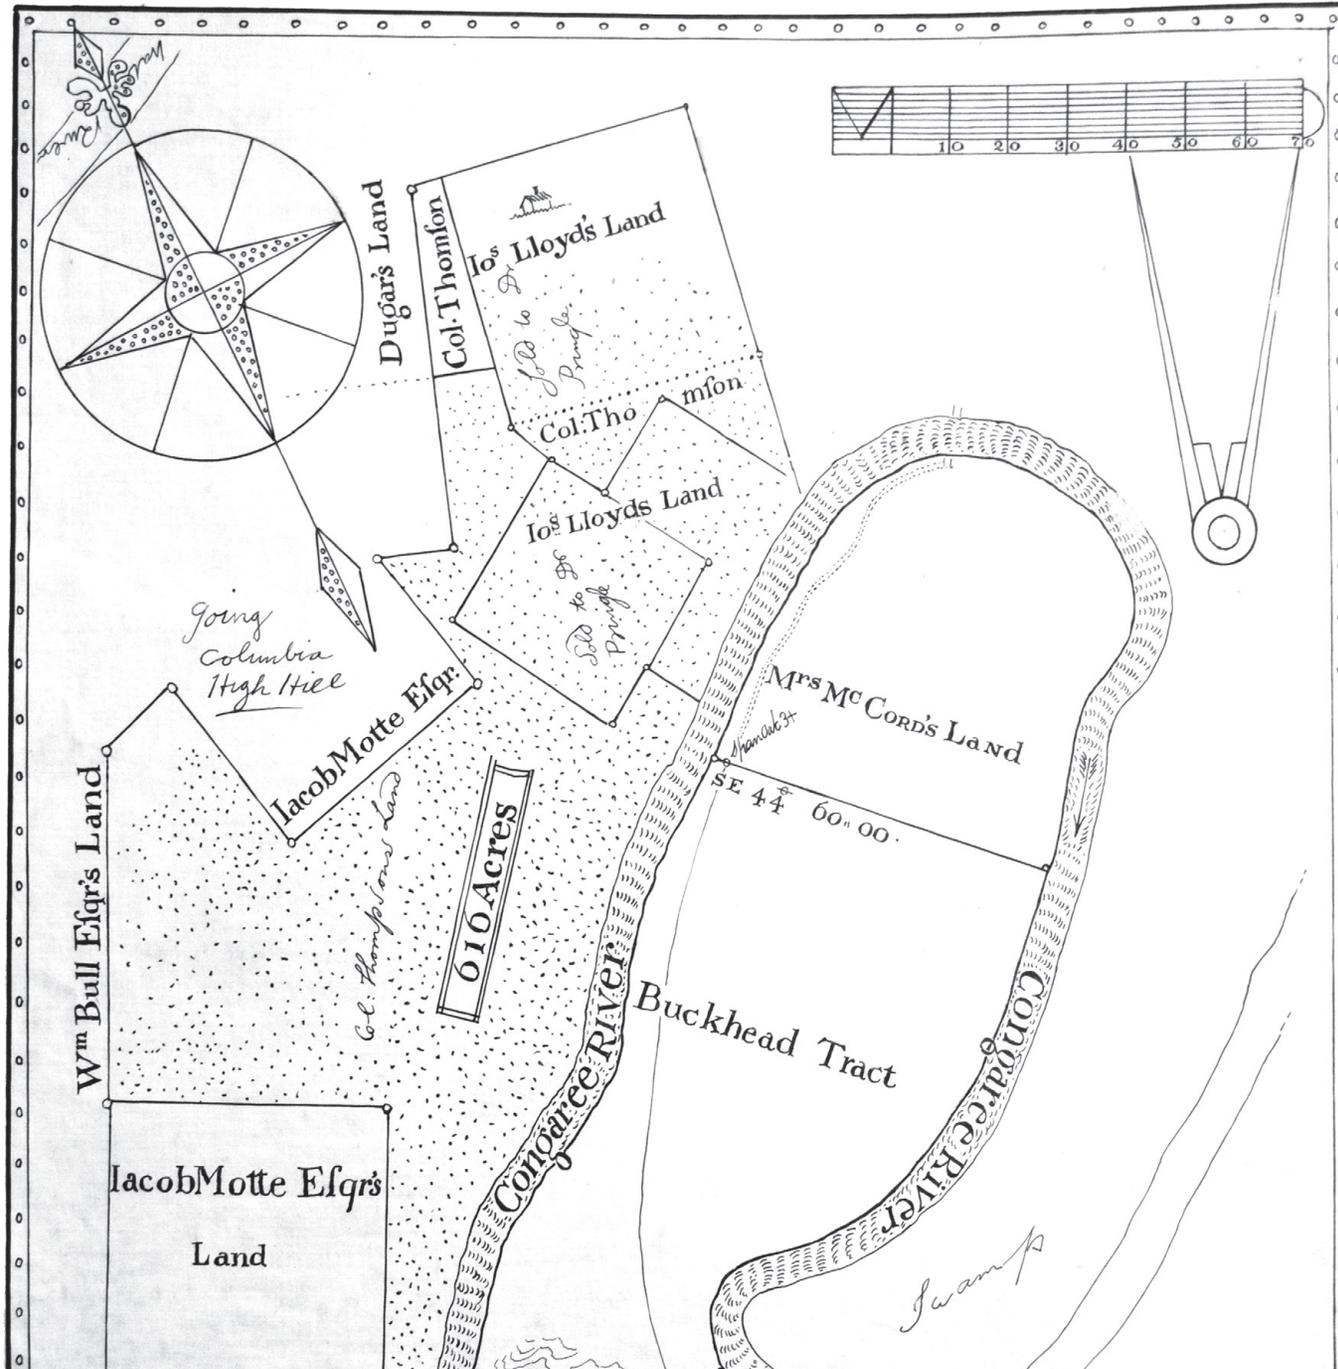

VIEW OF PAVILION AND RECREATIONAL CENTER, ISLE OF PALMS, CHARLESTON, S. C.— 83

Isle of Palms postcard, circa early twentieth century

Photograph of live oak trees and dog, circa early twentieth century

Copy of eighteenth-century Orangeburg District plat by John Bennett, 1926

Photograph of Charleston's One Broad Street, circa 1930s

Share your creations with us! Tag @schistory (Instagram) or @SCHistory (Facebook) and use #ColorOurCollections.

With 350 years of state history comprised in rare books, manuscripts, and visual materials, the South Carolina Historical Society is the state's largest and oldest private archive as well as a modern historical museum.

Founded in 1855, the organization's preservation, exploration, and interpretation of the state's historical legacy continues to benefit generations of learners. Its mission is "to expand, preserve, and make accessible our invaluable collection, and to encourage interest and pride in the rich history of our state."

© 2019 South Carolina Historical Society
100 Meeting Street
Charleston, SC 29401
(843) 723-3225
schistory.org