The Amy Freeman Lee Collection

Seguin native, Dr. Amy Freeman Lee (1914 - 2004), was a renowned artist, lecturer, and humanist. Mrs. Lee donated this collection of books and records to the Seguin-Guadalupe County Public Library in 1961, according to a letter written by a Library board member. The original intent, the letter says, was to house the books and records until such a time that they could be "held as a separate collection for the in-house use of serious researchers."<sup>(2)</sup>

The titles in this coloring book are from Mrs. Lee's collection of Limited Editions Club books. The LEC was founded by George Macy (1900-1956) in 1929. Its purpose was to publish beautifully made editions of classic literature and a few select contemporary authors. Editions were published in small numbers exclusively for members of the LEC. Mrs. Lee's LEC collection contains editions spanning from 1931 to 1955.<sup>(3)</sup>
